ANTONELLA SOSSI CAMACHO

Brand & Creative Strategist

Madrid | +34 664280349 | antonellasossi@icloud.com | Linkedin | Portfolio

Marketing strategist with a background in fashion communication. I build campaigns, brand identities and experiences from concept to execution, with a focus on fashion, beauty and lifestyle. Strong in audience insight, creative concepting, creator partnerships and event coordination, and hands-on in photo and video production.

Professional Experience

TrepCamp Academy — Apr 2024 – Present

Brand & Creative Strategist (promoted from Social Media Manager and Operations Analyst)

- Lead the brand's creative and communication direction: campaign concepts, scripts, tone of voice and messaging for each program.
- Repositioned the brand's voice and aesthetic for a younger audience: organic community from 17K to 44K+, 10x story reach, 1.5M+ monthly views, and audience expansion from Mexico to the rest of Latin America.
- Defined the tone of voice and messaging guidelines for the brand book during the rebrand, working with the design team.
- Built Voices, an ambassador and UGC program of ~50 participants turned creators, driving $3,750+ in direct program sales.
- Coordinated on-site logistics for the New York program (venues, accommodation, closing event for ~35 participants, partners' dinner) and led the content plan for the Madrid program at ESIC Business School.
- Covered the Forbes 30 Under 30 Summit and interviewed and photographed speakers from LOEWE and BUND for the Fashion & Retail program.

Vibra Alto Clothing — Oct 2020 - Dec 2022

Founder & Creative Director

- Founded and ran an online fashion brand on my own: name, identity, positioning, sourcing and inventory.
- Art-directed, styled and shot every photoshoot and product photo, standing out in a market where competitors used supplier catalogue images.
- Built Instagram as the brand's only sales channel, growing an organic community from 0 to 6K in one year, increasing engagement by ~30%+ and generating consistent sales.
